Assignment Description

inspired by the work of pixar and the creative process we are going to create a rendering of a conceptual Character of the students' imagination. Using a collage photo or drawing based on the character Bio they filled out they will mock and explore an aspect of the Character through different sketches. Examples of Character Traits they can explore are Emotions, Form, Story Transformation etc. The Model sheet must be composed of at least 3 different line drawings of the same character that explores the chosen aspect/ trait. The character line art will be composed of different hierarchies of lines (an art element) and basic shading. Only one of the line drawings has to be rendered. The rendering must be full color and have value. This character must be an original design!

Project requirements

The character must be 100 percent original.

There must be at least three different line art version of your character

Each Line art must explore a theme about your character whether that be emotions, form, Character Transformation, gestures, or a story arch.

Your character must visually embody the personality Traits/ bio you outlined in the "Character Bio"
