

Do You like making artwork, digital or traditional?

Have you even considered art and design as a possible career. (they can make money, I promise!!!) Attend a national portfolio day and see what it is all about and how to achieve such a cool career!

National Portfolio day

National Portfolio Day is an event specifically for visual artists and designers. It is an opportunity for those who wish to pursue an education in the visual and related arts to meet with representatives from colleges accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art and Design. Representatives will be available to review your artwork, discuss their programs and answer questions about professional careers in art. High school students, parents, teachers, guidance counselors and college transfer students are encouraged to attend.

National Portfolio Day serves a variety of purposes. Most importantly, it is designed to help further the artistic development of young artists as well as discuss your college plans, programs and degrees, and college's application process. . They can provide helpful incite to both artwork and future college plans.
