The T.A.G Critic Method

*Remember the point of this is not to hurt the artists feeling but to help them and you see art techniques that work and maybe inspire you

Also if your art is being reviewed Remember it is not about you personally but your art!!!

TAG Peer Review

Tell the artist something you like.

About the art!!!!

Ask the artist a question.

About the art!!!!

Give the artist a suggestion.

About the art!!!!

Below is an example of Using the T.A.G method to critic Artist Elizabeth St. Hilaire's Lion

Tell her something you like about the artwork

Ex. I really enjoy the colors used, there really feel harmonious like they belong together

Ask a question about it (maybe how she did something, that you might want to replicate ie a technic)

Ex. how did you (she) get the feeling of hair with cut paper?

Give her a suggestion about what she could improve on this peice

Ex maybe if the picture had some was zoomed out a little so that there was a bit of a background

5. Ask a question about it

6. Give her a suggestion about what she could improve on this piece

Use the T.A.G method to critic Mrs. Ras' Eagle (yes i am being the first sacrifice). Remember this isn't personal but constructive... so you can not say i think it looks like poop because i hate mrs ras... you can say i don't think the colors work well together suggest trying blue instead of a purple background.

7. Tell her something you like about the artwork

8. Ask a question about it

9. Give her a suggestion about what she could improve on this piece
